

The Société Médicale Balint
and
the International Balint Federation are organising a Balint weekend

in Reims, France

Friday May 25th - Sunday May 27th, 2018

Would you like a bubbling Balint weekend?

How rich is the doctor-patient relationship! Let's explore it with Balint work. Come to meet us in the area of the famous Champagne wine. We invite you to join a meeting of the French Balint Society. Some Balint groups will be organised in French and others in English.
